The following is a brief summary of HPD incident report HC-20-020943, for full details see attached.

2. On 10/08/2020, Vice Detective Nick Ishman executed a search warrant at 445 S. 13th Street, 2nd Floor Apt., in the city of Harrisburg, PA. Prior to executing the search warrant, an individual identified as Zamir NOBLES was observed exiting the apartment located at 445 S. 13th Street. NOBLES began walking with two other individuals identified as Tawaun BENDER and James PATTERSON. Members of the HPD Street Crimes Unit and Community Policing Unit were requested to move into the area and take NOBLES and BENDER into custody for felony drug charges. As officers converged on the three individuals, PATTERSON fled on foot. After a brief struggle, PATTERSON was detained without further incident. Law enforcement officers recovered a Charter Arms, Model: 38 Special, .38 caliber, bearing S/N: 80143, revolver from PATTERSON (located in front of his pants). PATTERSON is a previous convicted felon, making him a person not to possess firearms and/or ammunition.
3. The above mentioned firearm was submitted to Pennsylvania State Police (PSP) Harrisburg Regional Laboratory, located at 1800 Elmerton Avenue, Harrisburg, PA, to be analyzed.
